17 – 19 November 2017

Join The Champagne Goddess -Susan Le Roux- at Australia's finest celebration of Sparkling Wine: Effervescence Tasmania.

Featuring SOLD-OUT tickets to Jacques Reymond's degustation dinner and Essence of Effervescence Sunday Luncheon, this luxury trip celebrates the very best of Launceston and The Tamar Valley, Tasmania.

With elegant accommodation in Launceston's new Hatherley Birrell Collection of apartments, luxury-transfers to and from Josef Chromy Winery and a full schedule of tastings, master classes and delicious Tasmanian produce, this weekend will be a demonstration of Tasmanian hospitality you'll remember for years.

Friday 17 November: A 'Black Tie' affair commencing with bubbles and canapés in the 'Tea-House Apartments' before transferring to Josef Chromy Winery by 6pm. Tonight's SOLD-OUT Degustation Dinner will feature five-courses from Tasmania's Food Ambassador Jacques Reymond, and our table will be hosted by one of Tasmania's leading Winemakers, sharing the secrets of Tamar Valley's terroir.

Saturday 18 November: After a boutique breakfast, experience Launceston's Produce Markets, before arriving at the Effervescence Festival in time for Masterclass #1: The best of Tasmania's Sparkling. With plenty of time to sample more Sparkling Wines at the Garden Party, we have places for you at The Bruny Island Cheese Masterclass #2; an option of a tour of the winery and disgorgement process of sparkling wine-making, or a line-up of some of the greatest sparkling wines – and champagnes of the world.

With time to refresh back at our accommodation, return for 'Bubbles and Beats' featuring relaxed BBQ canapés, chilled tunes, beers and Josef Chromy wines in an informal setting.

Sunday 19 November: Relax in your luxury apartment until late morning, and we'll make our way to the once-again SOLD-OUT Effervescence Luncheon at 12:30pm. With 80 Hats awarded in his career, Jacques Reymond's commitment to Tasmania's produce will come alive with matching sparkling wines. Listen to Tyson Stelzer explains how Tasmania has earned itself a stellar reputation in the production of cool-climate Sparkling Wines.
